WASHINGTON (AP) - The Interstate Commerce Commisday the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads-the biggest merger in U.S. history

But it rejected by a hairline 6-5 vote another merger plan that would have created the nation's longest railroad.

The ICC, ordered the new Eastern rail giant to take over all operations — passenger and freight—of the bankrupt New Haven Railroad. The decision was made April

6 but not disclosed until today. By handing down one of its rare merger vetoes in an age of continuing rail consolidation, the ICC turned aside the bid of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy to merge, taking over two smaller railroads, into a 25,000-mile system stretching

Holdup Nets $16,000 Collection

KANSAS CITY (AP) - An armed holdup and robbery of another house in widely separated sections of metropolitan Kansas City Tuesday netted about $16,000 in coin collections and other items.

The holdup was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray O. Lefman, both teachers, at 412 South Van Brunt Boulevard in Kansas City. The robbery was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dearin 6919 West 79th Street in Overland Park, Kan., a suburb of Kansas City.

Three men forced Mrs. Lefman at gunpoint to open a safe in her home Tuesday and escaped with a valuable collection of coins and other articles which Police estimated to be worth

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Actress Hedy Lamarr's role was for real. She played it with dignity and a smile.

"Not guilty," said a Municipal Court clerk, reading the jury's verdict Tuesday at the climax of Miss Lamarr's six-day trial on a charge of shoplifting.

Applause burst from some 50 spectators who had stuck through attorneys' final arguments and five hours' jury deliberation.

Hedy, 51, sitting erect at the counsel table, handsome in a camel's-hair suit, her caramelblonde hair chicly tousled, flashed a smile. Then another. Her kid-gloved fingers entwined the fingers of her attorney in a victory grip.

She walked to the jury box. Smiling, she thanked and shook hands with each of the seven men and five women jurors.

"I told the truth and the truth is easy to tell," said the Viennaborn star of "Ecstasy" at 15, and later a score of films including "Algiers," "Heavenly Body" and "Dishonored Wom-

A woman employe made a citizen's arrest of her as she left the store. Miss Lamarr testified Monday she had gone out to look for her business manager, planned to pay for the items all at once, and added: "I never did intend to steal.'

The charge was petty theft.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Mine workers' representatives vote today on a contract agreement aimed at ending a strike involving more than half the nation's Dean Construction Co. 100,000 soft coal miners. Sources predict approval.

The contract reportedly gives all miners a raise of $1 or more in daily pay, retroactive to April 1. This would be slightly in excess of the administration's 3.2 per cent wage guidelines.

An estimated 23,000 miners were awaiting approval of the contract by the 200-member national policy committee of the United Mine Workers before returning to work. As many as 60,000 miners were off the job during the two-week walkout, the industry's largest in 15 years. Thousands of them heeded a back-to-work plea from union officials and returned to the pits pending a final agreement. Contract terms were worked out last weekend by union Pres-

Monty McQuitty, personnel supervisor at Town and Country Shoes, was the speaker at Optimist Club Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel.

McQuitty told of the growth of Town and Country since it came to town in 1943, starting in the original building on North Missouri with 12,000 square feet and now has seven buildings with a total of 72,500 square feet. He told of the expected continued growth in Sedalia. The company, he said, has 600 employees, planning to add perhaps another 100 at the completion of the new building

McQuitty stated that the shoe industry has 515 distinct steps from the animal to the sale of shoes, and he had leather to show the starting of the process through the different phases of the making of the shoes.

There are 26 different lasts. and the difference in a shoe size is a third of an inch, this is between a regular size and a half size. There is one twelfth inch difference in the widths. The competition is great, Mc-

Quitty went on to say, in the shoe manufacturing business not only nationally but foreign countries. Recently there was a beautiful little Italian made shoe that was sent to their company which sells for $2.50. This shoe could not be duplicated at Town and Country, he said, for that price because the manufacturing conditions are different. The hourly wage there is 49 cents an hour, Town and Country pays the highest wages of any shoe manufacturing company in Missouri, and it has high fringe benefits. The people at Town and Country are skilled, he said, and that is the reason that the company continues to grow The shoes are high fashion and well made, and are carried in leading department stores

Lackluster List For Emmy Award

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) - Television's lackluster year has produced a lackluster list of nominations for Emmy Awards. These are supposed to be the industry's highest honors since they are sponsored by its own organization, the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Naturally, most of the year's high moments were reflected in the list of 225 or so nominations released Tuesday - "Color Me Barbra," "The Julie Andrews Show" and the coverage of the Pope's visit to New York.

For the most part, the programs seemed to have been nominated almost perfunctorily, with a Nielsen national rating report in one hand and a pencil in another. "Batman" won a nomination in the comedy catestanding dramatic series."

Teen-agers' Magic Future

to happen to those present day students who think it's "sissy" to be regular in attendance at school, who think they can "bone up" for examinations and thus skin through for class advancement or graduation?

Those who will go down the drain or become drop-outs no doubt will find a place in the labor market but all their life they will just be getting by. They will always be finding excuses for themselves, trying to justify an inferiority complex in later life by pointing the finger of frustration at the successful snobs who finished high school and college. This has seldom been depicted more vividly than by Dr. Lester F. Zerfoss, developmental phychologist for the American Enka Corp., in a recent address to a teen-age audience.

So let's have a little fling at what someone else told his listeners, and hope that it will sink in for its intended purpose wherever most needed:

Washington Merry-Go-Round

FBI Cross-Examines Dodd Witnesses

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON - This column is supposed to report what goes on behind the scenes in Washington, so here is a report on what has been going on behind the scenes in the Sen. Tom Dodd investigation

Early in our development of this story, Jack Anderson notified the FBI that we had certain important documents pertaining to the ethics of a key senator, and invited the FBI around to study and evaluate the

Mr. Anderson, I might add, not having been around Washington as long as I. labors under the impression that the FBI is anxious to root out and suppress wrong-doing wherever it may be - even in high places.

The FBI, therefore, with Mr. Anderson's cooperation photographed every scrap of evidence we had. When some of the photos didn't develop clearly, the FBI even came back and rephotographed.

Jack had also been working with half a dozen prospective witnesses. all former Dodd employees, to tell the FBI what they knew of Dodd's misconduct. These were young people who had been shocked at what was happening in Dodd's office and departed. They felt under moral obligation to report what was happening.

Mr. Anderson offered to produce these witnesses, no strings attached, for the FBI. The G-men called on the witnesses all right, but didn't ask a single question about Dodd, his conduct, whether he had diverted funds from testimonial dinners to his own pocket and whether he had acted on behalf of a foreign agent, Gen. Julius Instead, the FBI cross-examined these young people about the alleged theft of Dodd's documents. They also heckled them about other stories Jack Anderson and I had written, including how we got the unpublished manuscript of the Cosa Nostra squealer. Joe Valachi. What this had to do with the Dodd case is hard to explain, but the FBI didn't try to explain it.

These witnesses are clean-cut young men

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Young Democratic club met in the assembly room of the court house with Kenneth Johnson presiding in the absence of President William Brown. Delegates to the state convention in St. Joseph were elected as follows: J. H. Bagby, William F. Brown, Dan M. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Martin, Stanton Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Sullivan, Miss Alice Scott, William B. Rissler, Mrs. John Devine, Kenneth Johnson, W. E. Hert, Jr., Bryan Howe and Miss Ruth Wingate.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Members of the Sedalia Typographical Union No. 206 and their wives met in the Knights of Pythias Hall, organized an auxiliary and elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. A. M. Nelson; Vice-President, Mrs. M. H. Ayres; Secretary, Mrs. Claude M. Yankee; Treasurer, Mrs. Edw. Mullaley. Mrs. Henry Shepherd and Mrs. L. G. Mc-Allister were appointed as membership committee.

and women, who believe senators are not above the law and that it should not be against the law to document corruption charges against a U. S. senator. They are not disgruntled employees who came running to us with information against their boss. We sought them out; it took weeks to persuade them that their first loyalty should be to their country, not to Dodd. However, the public can judge for itself these witnesses if they are ever given a chance to testify

As fast as the FBI discovered the identity of the witnesses, they were bullied and badgered, hounded and harassed. One lost his job on a House Committee; the news of his dismissal came from Dodd's office. Another, who decided it was his duty to testify against Dodd, felt it improper to remain in Dodd's office. Since submitting his resignation, he has been unable to find another job. Others have had their jobs threatened.

One woman, seven months pregnant, was grilled by agents for three hours. Another Senate employee, who simply had been gossiping about the case, hardly got back to his office before the G-men descended upon him and pumped him to find out what he

Agents hauled some witnesses right into Dodd's effice for cross-examination and behaved as if they were working for the senator. Other witnesses were alternately softsoaped and threatened with federal prose-

I have been around Washington a long time, but have never seen such an example of police state operation.

Above J. Edgar Hoover

Such investigations, of course, do not happen by accident. They usually go beyond the Attorney General, Mr. Katzenbach, an awfully nice guy, but a bit wishy-washy when it comes to standing up to the White House or the Senate Judiciary Committee of which Tom Dodd is a member.

Such investigations usually go right up to the President himself. Mr. Johnson has on his desk a direct private phone to J. Edgar Hoover. They are very old friends, dating back to the days when I used to visit in Lyndon's home when he was a gawky young congressman from Texas living just across the street from J. Edgar Hoover's well-appointed bachelor abode. Lyndon is not only a friend of Hoover's but he is a friend of Dodd's. It takes a real friend to make the two trips he made to Connecticut to speak at two testimonial dinners which raised $100,000 for Tom's personal bank account.

After the 1961 testimonial, Dodd's political lieutenant. Ed Sullivan, wrote to him: "Charles McDonough (an insurance executive) drove Vice President Johnson back to the airport from dinner. On the way, he told Charlie under no condition would he miss your dinner. He said he considers you and Grace (Mrs. Dodd) amongst the best friends of he and Mrs. Johnson, and considers you on the Senate Floor the best friend he has.

Lyndon did all right for Tom. He hoisted him to a choice position on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, ahead of other senators, a vantage point from which he was able to work more effectively for Gen. Julius Klein. And he almost picked Tom to run with him for vice president. Such is part of the inside story of what goes on in Washington.

The World Today

Meaning of 'Sanctuary' Unexplained

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) - The State Department says "there is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam

Does this mean that, if Red Chinese planes attack U.S. planes or forces in Viet Nam and then flee back to "sanctuary" in their homeland. American planes will pursue them and bomb them in Red China?

But until this is spelled out further in words or deeds, what the State Department said will have to carry a question mark behind it

It is now one war and 15 years later than the Korean war in which the American policy was not to do any fighting in or over Red China even though the Chinese invaded Korea massively under the label of "volun-

It was this policy which brought on the historic clash in 1951 between President Harry S. Truman, who wanted to avoid direct war with Red China, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who wanted to bomb it. Truman fired him finally

In a basic sense Truman's position was similar to President Johnson's today

Truman was determined to resist North Korean Communist aggression against South Korea but if possible to limit the war to Korea since enlargement, through the involvement of Red China, might lead to World War

Johnson has been determined to resist the aggression of the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese Communists against South Viet Nam while trying to limit the war to Viet Nam and hoping to avoid tangling with Red China.

In Truman's case the "sanctuary" of Red China was preserved and later a truce achieved, even though the Red Chinese were up to their necks

For the past 10 days the air war over North Viet Nam has

"Someday, son, all this will be yours!"

been expanding dramatically. At least saying there is no with U.S. fighter planes in a series of dogfights with Sovietdesigned MIG21s

Robert J. McCloskey, the State Department press officer, was asked Tuesday if the Red planes had come into North Viet Nam from Chinese bases. He said "we have no information which would lead to such a con-

But, explaining that he was repeating a position stated by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in the past. McCloskey said about the possibility the MIGs came from Red China: "There is no sanctuary" in the Viet Nam

Then, however, he declined to say whether the "no sanctuary" policy means American planes may chase enemy jets into Communist China if the Red craft flee across the frontier.

Until he is willing to say whether that's what it means, then what meaning does "no sanctuary" have at all, unless it's meant to make the Chinese think twice as of now they don't know what Rusk has in mind?

It was last July 11 that Rusk said North Viet Nam's supporters "must take fully into account" that in the Viet Nam war "the idea of sanctuary is dead."

At that time other U.S. sources said Red China had been told those who might join in an attack on South Viet Nam could not expect immunity from reprisal.

A second spade lead pulled the East - West trumps and South led the jack of diamonds. He played low from dummy. East won with the queen and returned the three of hearts. South had already lost three tricks and was sure that West held the heart king. Therefore South rose with the ace, led his nine of diamonds and covered with dummy's ten. If West had held the diamond king South would have been able to discard his queen of hearts on the diamond ace but instead South went down two tricks. Then, when a second spade lead pulled both adverse trumps South would have had an extra entry to dummy. He could then have won the second diamond with dummy's ace, ruffed out East's king, got back with the six of spades, discarded his queen of hearts on a good diamond and won the rubber instead of going down."

Common Sense of Tax Lore

By David Garfield

Relax Rules on White-Collar Pension

A pension plan, under which the employer puts money away for future retirement of executives and other employes, is a tremendously valuable tax saver. The company gets a deduction when the money is contributed under the plan; but the employe does not have to pay any tax until after retirement when he begins to receive payment. And, if he withdraws his entire share of the plan in a lump sum at retirement, he will be taxed at the more favorable capital gain rates.

Because these tax benefits are so large, the law contains a number of rules to make sure that a company's pension plan will make retirement benefits available to all employes, on a proportionate and fair basis, and will not be limited solely for the benefit of executives, supervisors, or owners of the business. While the law specifically permits a pension plan to cover only salaried employes (in contradistinction to hourly wage earners) the Internal Revenue Service has always reviewed plans carefully to make sure that a "white-collar" plan which covers the salaried employes only does not discriminate in favor of supervisors, executives and owners. In fact, in recent years, some Internal Revenue Directors have gone so far as to say that a pension plan does not qualify for tax benefits, if it covers salaried people only, unless the company also has a similar plan in effect for the benefit of its hourly wage earners.

In a recent ruling, the Service has rejected this hardline approach and has instead re-affirmed the statutory permission for white-collar plans. However, the Government Agency did set down a number of guidelines to make sure that a white-collar plan does not discriminate. The most important of these is that if a majority of the people covered by the plan do not earn much more than a "blue-collar" worker would, then the plan will be approved. For example, if a company having twenty executives, fifty clerk typists, and one thousand hourly rated factory employes, sets up a plan solely for the office personnel. the plan will receive Government approval because the white - collar employes in the low-salary classification (clerk typists) out-number the highly paid executive group

Thus, in practical effect, the Internal Revenue Service has cleared the track for qualification of most typical white-collar plans in small, medium and large businesses of their children. They don't teach them to respect other people's rights or property. They fail to realize that neither the church nor the school can do EVERYTHING for the child.

Our own children have given us very little trouble, and we get good reports about them from their teachers. Among other things, we have taught them that teachers are in school to help them learn and deserve their highest respect. Also, that school is not a place to cause trouble, but a place to prepare for their future. - ANOTHER

ANSWER: Good for you! I couldn't say as much without risking my job. Parents who expect the school to bring up Johnny and Susie are in for a rude awakening. I'm afraid. It's almost impossible for any teacher to completely offset the effects of poor home training.

The school can't be all things to all children without sacrificing its main function of teaching "the three Rs." If parents want quality education for their children, they must shoulder their own responsibilities and give the school time to teach.

Uniform School Plan Proposed

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) -A uniform school desegregation plan has been proposed by the Justice Department, which wants it adopted as a model for federal courts in the South.

The proposal was submitted Tuesday night by Asst. Atty. Gen. John P. Doar to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, the Deep South's highest federal tribunal and the last stop for Southern civil rights litigation before it reaches the U.S. Supreme Court.

The desegregation plan written by Doar - the department's top man on racial matters generally follows the new and tougher guidelines which the U.S. Office of Education has set as a criteria for school districts to receive federal aid.

It calls for total desegregation of all grades by the fall of 1967 under the "freedom of choice"

It was, he revealed, the 120th tournament victory in an international golfing career that began in 1945 when he won the Argentine Open.

He has won the National Open in 13 countries-Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil, France, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Chile, Peru, Colombia, Panama, Jamaica and Mexico.

De Vicenzo won the Colonial National Invitation at Fort Worth in 1957 and that was his biggest purse until Tuesday when he won the Dallas Open by one stroke over Ray Floyd. Joe Campbell and Harold Henning.

De Vicenzo started the final round of the Dallas Open tied for ninth place, four strokes off the pace being set by John Lotz and Harold Henning, who had 205 for 54 holes. Only DeVicenzo made progress in the final 18. Henning was one-over-par. Lotz two over.

Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer, who were supposed to fight for the championship, fin-ished with 72 and 73 respectively, and wound up down the list.
Sanders had 279 and tied for eighth place. Brewer had 280 and tied for 13th.

Says Modern nawer to Previous Puzzle Capitals Football Is Rougher

NEW YORK (AP) - One of the original All-America football players thinks the modern game s rougher and more dangerous because of safety equipment.

"Those head gears the boys wear are like iron-plated armor in the Middle Ages," John Houghton Hubbard, a halfback at Amherst shortly after the turn of the century, told the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame Awards dinner Tuesday night.

"When I played, I didn't wear a headgear at all. We had only a thin layer of cotton over our shoulders and the main equipment was to protect the legs. Today's football players wear 15 pounds of armor and every inch of it is a hazard."

Hubbard, a member of Walter Camp's All-America team who Griffith played every minute of his four year varsity career between Starts On 1903 and 1906, was one of four old-timers inducted into the Hall

The others were Everett Bacon of Wesleyan University, 76, Francis McGovern, an All-of Minnesota in 1908-1910. McGovern died two years ago at the age of 78. The others were present to receive their awards.

Anti-Americanism Is Far Spread Among Red Chinese

States and Communist China? less. uncensored dispatch, brought out of China by the British Novelist Frank Tuohy, gives a hint in its disclosure of the way Americans are depicted there. Since U.S. reporters are not admitted to China, The Associated Press asked Tuehy to report on his findings in this and in other articles to appear later.

By FRANK TUOHY

PEKING (AP) — Signs of anti-American feeling are everywhere in China. Yet I feel there is something fishy about it all. If the Americans did not exist, the Central Committee of the Communist party would have to invent them.

Take the following snene, for example:

An old man is lying on the ground, and and an officer with a stock-whip is flogging him. A young woman dashes forward to help, but is seized by two soldiers. The officer turns with a fiendish snarl and snatches her baby from her. The woman breaks free, but two more soldiers cross their rifles with fixed bayonets in front of her. The officer taunts her. Raising the child, he hurls it down on to the crossed bayonets. The woman shrieks. Grinning, the officer draws a revolver and shoots her on the spot.

The officer is American, the mother and baby Vietnamese. This gruesome scene starts off the Chinese film "Victory is Just Ahead," which I saw in Canton. The American officer, called J. Watson, is played by a Chinese with a false nose.

Why do the Americans have to be presented like this?

There are several reasons. First, the Chinese believe that they have been especially marked out for American detestation since 1949. One of the "re-molded capitalists" of Shanghai, used to turning on his opinions for foreigners, was quite definite about it: "The Americans have bullied us too much. We are determined to see this through. The Americans have always been dead against China. In 1950 they bombed lants in Shanghai made more than 400 intrusions. Why should we Chinese have aggressive designs on other countries when there is so much to be done here?"

Further embellishments are added to this general picture every day. China's sudden loss of friends in Ghana and Indonesia is due to CIA plotting; all American moves for peace in Viet Nam are a hoax.

Secondly, in spite of diplo-matic setbacks, China still wishes to appear the leader of revolutionary movements against imperialism and neocolonialism all over the world.

The breakdown of the relationship with Cuba is still a traumatic experience which has not been adjusted to.

Deprived of the Cubans, China looks elsewhere for oppressed peoples to lead. Flagged maps of the United States shows spots of "student-worker" protest as though these were Chinese outposts in a bat-

My objection that many of the protesting American students were Christians and pacifists were brushed aside.

Thirdly the Americans play an important role in the thought of Chairman Mao Tze-tung. According to Marx and Lenin, two become one; thesis and antithesis become synthesis. According to Chairman Mao, the greatest revisionist of them all, however, "one becomes two"; any one situation always contains two

Marathon Cab Rider A Relative

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP) George Kehriotis had read newspaper accounts of the mysterious traveler's marathon taxi ride, 2640 miles across the country from Toledo, Ohio, to San Francisco.

"Imagine my surprise," he said, "when the cab showed up at my house and the lady is a relative."

In keeping with her wishes, the woman-who paid a flat $1,-200 for the long haul which required two drivers and 50 hours driving time-remained incognito Kehriotis' home yesterday.

"She's a wonderful person," was Mrs. Kehriotis rather noncommittal description of her mysterious houseguest.

The two Black and White Cab Co. drivers, who delivered their fare to the home of Kehriotis, a real estate broker, at 6:55 a.m. Monday, were a bit more explicit-but not much.

Paul Mertz, 43, and Chet Reneau, 39, said their passenger, in her 50's, was in failing health and presently involved in a legal battle over the estate of her late wealthy husband.

Mertz, a driver in Toledo for 25 years, said the woman telephoned for a taxi at the Holiday Inn in Toledo last Thursday morning.

To the traditional "Where to?" the woman responded, "I'd very much like to go to Califor-

"I about fell out of my seat." Mertz said.

But he sympathized with the explanation that the lady, grieving over the loss of her husband, wanted privacy. She wanted to see "the only relatives who've been nice to me." (She is the widow of Mrs. Kehriotis' uncle). And she had the money

The taxi company decided on a flat rate of $1,200 and she wrote them a check. The company declined to disclose the woman's identity.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., is pledging a fight to restore a $12million appropriation for rent subsidies that was cut from a supplemental money bill Monday by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The $30-million appropriation originally requested by President Johnson had been cut by the House to $12 million. The funds would permit the federal government to pay the difference between 25 per cent of the family's income and the rent.

The supplemental money bill comes up on the Senate floor Wednesday.
